

Discharge.—The result of the investigation before Justice Clayton, in the case of Ella F. Jackson, charged with administering medicine, in connection with the young man known to the late Miss M. A. Darrell, for the purpose of obviating the consequences of alleged dishonesty, was her discharge.